

Electric Rates

The Galion City Council is currently considering new electric rates for city electricity customers. If you would like to know how the proposed rates may effect your monthly energy cost, please stop by or call the utility office. We can calculate what your electric cost will be, based on the rates being considered.